Butler county defeated prohibition Texas county has defeated prohibi

Bollinger county has defeated pro hibition.

Gov. Marmaduke's last words were: "It is all over !"

Tuesday morning. It is said that Don Cameron actually has a bee in his bonnet.

Phœbe Couzins is announced candidate for governor. Another mammoth cave has been discovered in Kentucky. Great destruction was caused Porto Rico recently by a huge wave. All men concede that Gov. Marma-

Tributes of affection and regret come from everywhere on the death of Gov.

duke was honest, brave and conscien-

At Fort Totten, last Tuesday morning, the thermometer registered 30 de-

Ex-Lieut.-Gov. Chas. P. Johnson for governor if ---. The death of Daniel Manning is grees below zero.

loss to the democratic party. No one regrets the death of Gov a copy of the constitution of the United

Mr. Randall is to be placed on the committee on rules and to be made the chairman of the committee on appro-

Mr. W. W. Corcoran sent to Mrs. M. A. Snowden, a check for $1,000 for a our readers. Christmas present to the Confederate

Home in Charleston, S. C. The governor's funeral will take politics, a true friend, an honest man, place to-day at 3 o'clock. He will to and an incorruptible executive. buried from the mansion in the state's lot in the Jefferson City cemetry.

At San Francisco Paddy and Mcheavy-weights, as are Smith and Kil-state. Eighty canning tactories have, esty and ability. during the past year, put up over 14, 000,000 cans of sweet corn, beside larg : quantities of apples, beans, tomatoes and other vegetables and fruit.

The hoosier republicans have met creased, the surplus expended on forts country. and the tariff retained as it now stands. This is statesmauship of the Ben Har-

Republican reporter, last week, that he was a candidate for governor, and that if elected he would serve out the term for which the people chose him, and not use the place as a stepping-stone into the senate. Lieut-Gov. Morehouse was sworn in as Governor Thursday. He appointed Mr. C. V. Yantis as his private secretary and announced that no changes whatever would be made in Goy, Mar maduke's appointments. Senator Ball strongly attracted to Mr. Cleveland, as type of Americanism that we have seen tacked by dizziness and sustained a since Lincoln was snatched from us."

Six men attempted to rob the express car of a train at Boggy creek, near Atoka, I. T., Christmas morning. The express messenger, John Grimshaw, closed and barricaded the door. with the assistance of the baggage man and successfully defended his trust until the robbers concluded to leave. Mr. Grimshaw is quite the hero of the hour for his bold and successful resis-

The pension bill, prepared under the eye of the Grand Army of the Republic, has been brought to the surface. It provides for a pension for nearly every person who ever served last long. Returning to this country, in the army, and for all persons related Mr. Manning passed the hot summer by consanguinity or affinity to per-sons who were in the army. It is a sons who were in the army. It is a bad one, and will hardly get as far as improve.

however, for over a year, and took a side in supporting his mother and sigtrip to Europe for his health some ters. He was first boy of all work, or months ago, accompained by Mr. Wilmonths ago, accompained liam Baggott, which seemed to benefit office, and he died one of the foremost is well known in this county, where felt sympathy to his family and rela-fines, a him somewhat, but did not restore to citizens of the United States. him his usual strength.

and the indges of the supreme court, with. Everything size they get they Norton, Ray, Sherwood, Black and must fight for."

the supreme court.

Judge Lindley says to the Republisher their Lind expression of sympathy and the high critishing paid the supreme court. Brace. The active pall bearers selected are Hiram Ferrell of Marshall, William Ramsey of Maryville, Dr. Morrison News:—"There are 2,000, meat of the probable candidacy of Judge Shepard Barclay for the supreme son Munford of Kansas City, W. H. being one-twentieth of the whole number and William Baggott of St. Louis, ber in the United States, but he will who has known the gentleman from the gentleman from the gentleman from the control of the work of the city bearing even the control of the work of the city bearing even the city bearin Kennedy of Springfield, and John G. the same." Ware of Piedmont. The services will be conducted by Bishop Tuttle of St. Ed. Anderson has been convicted of among the bar and people, or who he has dollar shirts in the market. been recently comp Louis.

JOHN S. MARMADUKE.

And John S. Marmaduke is dead. A true heart has ceased to beat, a been feeble and precarious, but relying on his magnificent physique and spleudid constitution the idea of an early death never suggested itself. The writer knew Gen. Marmaduke well, tor several years was closely associated with him in what was to him a labor of love tor those who had been his comrades inarms in the trying days of the civil war, and he learned to appreciate the tenderness and the largeness of his heart. He did not carry it pinned to his sleeve for the public gaze, but to kindness, charity and love. As a man he was honest, honorable and true, as an enemy perhaps strong in his prejudices, but as a friend loyal in this class belongs Gen. Alger, a and devoted, as a public servant conrageous, and faithful to every trust.

As a soldier he was bravery and chivalry personified, and though he came dy common sense, combined with inlexible integrity and undannted courof finance, strikes and legislative difficulties with honor to himself and credit

Gov. Marmaduke was born in Saline county, Mo., March 14, 1833, his father was acting governor of Missouri for early in his tenure of office. John S. Marmaduke worked on his tather's says he will be a prohibition candidate farm, was educated at the common school near his home, for two years at which time he boarded with Judge great loss to the country, but a greater | Wm. T. Wood, who says that he was a West Point from John S. Phelps. He

The president's gift to Pope Leo and served on frontier duty at Fort XIII on the occasion of his jubilee was Laramie, in the Utah expedition and in New Mexico. He resigned his commission to enter the service of the state eral of cavalry.

His civil career, as railroad commissioner and governor, is familiar to

And so passes from the stage of action the most conspicious figure in Missouri

DANIEL MANNING.

against his fair name or good faith.

1884, he married Miss May Margarita their party label.

where he remained for a considerable ime under the care of physicians. There were various reports as to the nature of the attack and subsequent illness, but it is now generally agreed that the trouble was apoplexy. After resigning the treasury portfolio he went to England in the hope of obmonth at Bournemouth, a noted sea-side resort on the west coast of En-

Mr. Manning was born at Albany, Governor Marmaduke died at 9:37 Manning was an Irishman and a baker, o'clock, last Wednesday night, of what dying when Daniel was nine years of the following letter from Hon James Resolved. That we who have known the following letter from Hon James Resolved. That we who have known to be improper to print the following letter from Hon James Resolved. o'clock, last Wednesday night, of what dying when Daniel was nine years of the following letter from from state of discontinuate and confident the doctors pronounced to be catarrhal age, and leaving his family in very J. Lindley in behalf of Judge Shepard that relations near witness to the digpneumonia, after a final illness of about one week's duration. He had been ill, with a brother, started in at once to however, for over a year, and took a aid in supporting his mother and sig. and a gentleman whose influence with wisdom of his commet and to the parity rated 1870. It is officere

Woodson, Fletcher and Crittenden, Pennsylvania in the division to start would make an excellent member of Colonei Marmadake thanked the murdering his father in 1886.

A GOOD RICH MAN.

and another drunken, care ess or improvident. Even were all factitions aids to great wealth removed, which they ought to be, still, the brainiest. the pluckiest and the most abstemious in the pluckiest and the most abstemior at the pluckiest and the most abstemic at the pluckiest and the pluckiest and the most abstemic at the pluckiest and the most abstemic at the pluckiest and the pluckiest and the most abstemic at the pluckiest and the pluckiest and his intimates it was revealed as full of millionaire citizen of Detroit.

A year ago on the advent of the new year he gave suits of clothes to five walry personified, and though he came hundred newsboys and sent coul or exceedingly useful member of the fixed and as powerful in controlling supreme court, and would adorn the him as his views of financial honesty. little previous study of politics his stur- This year he will repeat his gift, only position. on a larger scale. From lists furnished THE STERLING PRIOE MONUMENT. his secretary by persons who have age carried him through every crisis, means of knowing who are the legitichildren, a family where the father and was lieutenant in the 7th infantry, husband is insane, another where he is a decrepit old soldier, almost blind and is in the soldiers' home, while his wife of Missouri April 17, 1861. In the con-federate army he served with distincwife with five small children, the wife tion, rising rapidly to be a major- gen- deformed, yet struggling against the cruel decree of fate.

And so it goes, showing the terrible miseries of extreme poverty.

here and hereafter. Mr. Manning was a remarkable ex- light. There is no good reason to bea strong partisan, a politician of pro- tective tariff such as Peel and his folnounced views, so open and true was lowers overthrew would be as economhis private and public life that no poli- ically injurious to England to-day as tical enemy ever breathed a suspicion free trade would be to the United States." Now, as it is exactly "fair Wisson, of West Virginia, and Senator rest. By thegovernor: J. T. Morgan, of Alabama. Before 5 M. K. McGRATH, Secretary of State " o'clock the guests and mambers began to arrive, and at 5:45 a meeting of the state officers held in the governor's office this afterleague was held. Resolutions endors- noon the following resolutions were ing the message of President Cleveland adopted; quet ball, and Rev. Jas. Freeman tinguished a citizen.

Resolved That in the death of Gover-

Lowell called the meeting to order. As we have had a pleasant word to August 16, 1831. His tather, John say of other candidates for supreme and we deploye his losses a public from his stock they will de-At the burial of the governor this going to be a fight next year which gentleman in the highest sense of that

Ed. W. Stephens of Columbia, D. C. lead the fight for revenue reform all his boyhood, to state that, in my opin nation. Perfect his and first-class workman work and the ion, there are few men who have titled sten guaranteed, or no sale. Give us a trade and Lexington is a injudicial office in this city who enjoy a would command a readier support seption either for re-election or as a candidate for the supreme bench. This has been shown by his nomination at the age of the pluckiest and the most abstemious would outstrip their fellows, who are dull, timid and self-indulgent, and they ought.

Judge Barclay is a native of anison without bloodshet and without bloodsh Passing all this by it is a great thing ed at the university of Virginia, after-Passing all this by it is a great thing of a wealthy man to do good with his money. It is not 'money is the root of all evil,' but "the love of money is the exhibited the thoroughness of his trainhis kind more than his money is in no and his vigor and aptitude in the applihis full share of the labors of any court By his learning and experience as a mate and deserving newsboys of De- and enduring monument to the memo- this state has been freer from guberna- means that she is a true and noble woman, troit, the needy ones will be selected ry of Gen. Sterling Price is progressand sent one hundred at a time to cer- ing over the state, and is sufficiently tain clothing stores where they will be advanced to give assurance of success. carefully fitted out with coats and pan- Lafayette county has not yet done its being Meredith M. Marmaduke, who taloons of stout cloth, made to wear, part therefor, but we are sure that it taloons of stout cloth, made to wear, part therefor, but we are sure that it been warmly endorsed by democrats and with good shirts and stockings. will do so whenever the matter is fairly and republicans alike. It was impossithe term of Gov. Reynolds, who died The second part of Gen, Alger's bene- laid before its people. If every con- ble to know him well and not to be his faction will be to supply to 1,000 fami- federate soldier who served under the friend, for he was a brave man, an honlies in Detroit a cord of wood or a ton gallant and patriotic old Missourian est man, an honorable man. May he of coal each, together with a barrel of will give at least one dollar toward the object our share will have been accomthe Masonic college in this city, during In the list of the families to be aided plished. A few may not be able to appear brief notes of the causes which give even this small sum, but there are entitle them to the help extended. In others who can give a little more, and most exemplary young man, at Yale, entitie them to the nelp extended. In that will bring it up to the desired

> Office of Price Monument Association: Gen. D. M. Frost, president; C. A. DeFrance, secretary; Geo. A. Baker, treasurer. Directors, C. C. Rainwater, James Bannerman entirely incapable of work. Another Geo. B. Thomson, N. P. Minor, James N Douglas, Thos. J. Portis, Elijah Gates, Henry struggles heroically to support the Gmbor, W. P. Barlow, J. T. Donovan, J. R. Claiborne, L. B Valliant, H. A. Ricketts. Alfred Carr and D. C. Kennedy.

Dear Sir:-At the last meeting of the groud of directors of the association Judge N. P. Minor, of Bowling Green, was appointed to canvass the state of Missouri in the in-Gen. Alger will reap his reward, both terest of this association, to perfect the or-The St. Louis Globe-Democrat reads our honored and historic leader of Missits party associates a wholesome lesson in the following paragraph:—"The American protectionist journals which hall every alleged evidence of a growth Not unexpectedly Daniel Manning in fair-trade sentiment in England as to make a full showing of the work of the turn out with him as a politician or a Auliffe fought, and at the end of the died at his home in Albany, N. Y., an argument in favor of the tariff in ample of the possibilities which exist lieve that, on the whole, the devotion and sid of all who knew Gen. Price and who under our benign form of government to free trade in Great Britain is less appreciate the issues of the great conflict. for a poor boy who has courage, hon- powerful now than it was three, ten or Will you please give notice to your county or a poor boy who has courage, honsty and ability.

Born of poor parents his early life powerful now than it was three, ten or twenty-five years ago. Even were the such of the movement through the papers, and in such other ways as you think best, and have a full attendance as possible of the people at financial agents. The senior member was a struggle for bare existence. He no especial economic importance for climbed the ladder of financial success. Strictly speaking, protection of the people at his appointments. He will confer and coordinate the business in this city over twenty in the newspaper business at Albany, tion, in the sense here understood, is good work to an early completion. By order years, and ten years ago was joined by He was a warm friend of Mr. Til-den's, and had more to do with the is not a fundamental truth which is

Of the beard. C. A. DEFRANCE, Sec. We know Judge Minor well. He is firm name has been as above stated. Their office opposite the courtboase is and resolved that it will be best for the nomination of Mr. Cleveland for pre- always and everywhere applicable, but a true and earnest man. We hope the whole country if the pension list is in- sident than had any other man in the a method or device to accomplish a ex-contederates in the county will bear certain desirable end. The question of this matter in mind, so that when he loan money at the lowest current rate As reporter, editor, banker, political protection or free trade is one which comes here they will be prepared to on real estate security and as they releader, secretary of the United States each country must settle for itself, lend him their co-operation. To this treasury, husband, father, friend, Dan- guided by the knowledge of its own end it will be necessary to organize iel Manning executed every trust with natural resources and the industrial each township, and of the plan to do wish to borrow in sums of $300 to $10,-Hon. John M. Glover told a St. Louis ability and fidelity. Though always aptitude and skill of its people. A pro-

MISSOURI MOURNS.

JEFFERSON CITY, December 29:-

Mr. Manning was a large man, of trade" that the democrats propose for house was sworn in he issued the folpowerful frame; was always scrupu- the United States and not "free trade," lowing proclamation: "In recognition lously neat and well dressed; he was the inconsistency is apparent of those Governor John S. Marmaduke, and in cashire and many others of equally dignified and courteous in demeanor. republican journals which appland order that we may do honor to the solid financial standing. The rate-He was twice married. His first wife, 'fair trade" arguments in England but memory of the late distinguished citi- given are as low as can be duplicated Miss May Little, he married in 1853 condemn them in this country, simply zen and chief executive officer of this She died in 1882, and on November 19, and alone because they do not bear offices and public institutions of the on their books are many fine descripstate be closed on Saturday, December tions of city and county property 31. What a loss our state has sustain-which are for sale at low figures. The r succeeds Gov. Morehouse as president of the senate.

1884, he married Miss May Margarita Fryer, of Albany, N. Y. He leaves four children—James Hilton Manning, who recently became managing editor of the Argus; Frederick Clinton Manning, Mr. Cleveland's message. He said at the frederic reform league, at the Brunswick hotel, was highly successful, the arrange that the frederic reform league meeting in the fariff reform league, and merciful in the death of this great commoner. State be closed on Saturday, December which are for sale at low figures. The restriction of the death of this great commoner. State be closed on Saturday, December which are for sale at low figures. The restriction of the Argus; Frederick Clinton Manning, and banquet of the Massachusetts the world do move. At Boston, Thursday, a meeting in said banquet of the Massachusetts the world do move. At Boston, Thursday, a meeting in said banquet of the Massachusetts the world do move. At Boston, Thursday, a meeting in said banquet of the Massachusetts the world do move. At Boston, Thursday, a meeting in said banquet of the Massachusetts the world do move. At Boston, Thursday, a meeting in said banquet of the Massachusetts the world do move. At Boston, Thursday, a meeting in said banquet of the Massachusetts the world do move. At Boston, Thursday, a meeting in their party labet.

State be closed on Saturday, December which are for sale at low figures. The reform leader of the death of this great commoner? In the death of this great commoner? In the death of this great commoner? In the death of this great commoner. In the death of this great commoner. It is the close of the far and the control of the reform leader of the far and the control of the reform leader of the death of this great commoner. It is the close of the far and the control the tariff reform league meeting in chanty, of Albany, and Miss Mary, a ments being carried out on a most shadow. Generous and merciful in honor and a regard for the best intermediate the control of th The illness of Mr. Manoing dated elaborate scale. There was present a content of the hour of triumph and victory, unests of customers which has naturally strongly attracted to Mr. Cleveland, as the illness of Mr. Manning dated the best representative of the highest from March 23, 1886, when he was atand government officials, both from mate of right, untaltering in the ful-Massachusetts and elsewhere, among filment of his promises, he stamped heavy fall as he was about to enter his office in the treasury building on returning from a meeting of the cabinet.

He was taken in a carriage to his home

Massachasetts and elsewhere, among the number being Hon. Jas. Russell Lowell, Gen. John M. Corse, Hon. Patrick A. Collins, Congressmen W.

Patrick A. Collins, Congressmen W.

Massachasetts and elsewhere, among the individuality upon the age in which he lived and endeared himself to the business house, once thoroughly established, is with difficulty shaken, and as no initial commend a fitting observance one who has gained a more general or Breckenridge, of Kentucky, W. T. of that day when he shall be faid to one who has gained a more general or were adopted. Officers were then we who have been intimately associ- all articles of this nature from his stock. elected, after which the party proceed- ated with Governor Marmaduke in taining benefit, and spent more than a elected, after which the party process official relations, should give expressional design of the strong and sorrowful renumber of 322, were seated in the banple of the state, feel at the loss of so dis. great reductions in the various lines

After the banquet Hon. Jas. Russell nor Marmaduke the state has lost a begin a special closing our safe and magistrate, and that his administration few weeks of next month. has been marked by a breadth of all who wish to scence special bargains statesmanship, a fearless and faithful to plan their stopping so us to cast execution of the laws, and a patriotic Mr. devotion to the interests of the people, and when once they have made sen-several of his law class-mates have be. fions, who under such weight of sor-St. Louis Republican:—"There is the content in the highest sense of that the type of the content afternoon the honorary pall bearers will get all the democrats on one side word, cultured, refined, considerate and officers in a deep proceeded to the for restemption annually also will be Governor Morehouse and the and all the republicans on the other, kind. He is just turned farty years of mansion, where copies of the resolutions one other hand latterly or wind the coverage and the said all the republicans on the other.

It is just turned forty vege- of manhood, and were presented to Col. D. W. Maria:

Woodson, Fletcher and Crittenden.

The republicans will have Maine and were presented to Col. D. W. Maria:

and all the republicans on the other.

The republicans will have Maine and were presented to Col. D. W. Maria:

and all the republicans on the other.

The republicans will have Maine and will be the full vigor of manhood, and were presented to Col. D. W. Maria:

and all the republicans on the other.

character of his brother as governor

Our samples of new full and winter styles for buildings which * II. SINATURE The largest character H. SINAUSS. Rudolph Haerle.

JOHN S. MARMADUKE.

It is a grand thing to have wealth shown by his nomination at the age of 34 years for circuit judge in 1882, by a when it is used in benefactions to mankind. The ideal condition would be kind. The ideal condition would be 173 delegates in the democratic con- better governor nor a mantier citizen. - At Waverly, Lafavette counts. Mo. faithful public servant has passed from this world to the other. We knew that for many months his health had leave feeble and preserving but relying the faithful public servant has passed from the f but this condition is not to be obtained while human nature remains unequal, while one is sober, prudent and frugal, and this administration has been in more than ten years before every way a successful one. Tried as the same time and place. Mr. R. S. further shown by the general call upon him now here of the call upon him now here of the call upon him now here of the call upon him now here.

put an end to St. Louis scandals, set domestic. Christian duties of the woman the state above the "rings" which in They ought to be happy in each other's love the past had essayed to control it, and and we sincerely trust they may be,

(From the St. Louis Globe-Democraf.) death will shock the whole community in St. Louis a few days ago, apparent- | years. ly in the enjoyment of his usual health. where he graduated in the class of 1857 a story of misfortune, suffering and amount. The following letter received He met friends, transacted business who knew him. They all loved having received his appointment to the class of 1857 wrong. There are poor widows with by the editor of this paper will be read his appointment to the class of 1857 wrong. There are poor widows with by the editor of this paper will be read his appointment to the class of 1857 wrong. There are poor widows with by the editor of this paper will be read his appointment to the class of 1857 wrong. There are poor widows with by the editor of this paper will be read his appointment to the class of 1857 wrong. with an attack of pneumonia, which terminated fatally soon after 9 o'clock Wednesday night. The element of Wednesday night an unusual degree into the contemplation of a death coming about in this way, almost without warning to the victim, who in this case spect as yet remaining to him on earth.

But whatever may be said in censure or criticism of Gov. Marmaduke, the tribute of unflinching personal integrifoe alike. He was thoroughly honest In all his dealings, whether with indiv-

[Continued from first page.] TAYLOR & LESUEUR.

estate values in this part of the state impart to their loans safety and excelstracts of title and in this work they are most accurate and reliable. Among companies which they represent are the Liverpool, London and Globe, the of the universal sorrow at the death of North British and Mercantile, the Lanstate, I recommend that all public this firm is the sale of real estate and resulting in building up for them an

W. G. MCCAUSLAND desirable trade in this community and throughout the county than his. W G. McCausland. He certainly has speceeded in catablishing the fact to satisfaction of his lasty customers that they can secure the very best bargains As he buys heavily from the leading city, was in type, no doubt, when

Wanted.

THE ALTAR.

cest fight with combined corporations of the Lewis is an estimable gentleman. that had taken place in the state, he whom fate led to Dover as civil engineer in was again found true to himself and to charge of the extension of the Missouri Pa-

the people, unyielding against all in- concraitroad. Bent, probably, at first upon all evil," but "the love of money is the exhibited the thoroughness of his trainroot of all evil." The man who loves ing by a successful practice as a lawyer to bear to swerve him. He was not become under the influence of Miss Haronly a thoroughly honest man, but wood's eyes, when his main object of con force nor any exterior force could in railway company the course of true love in duce him to stoop to anything that he this case ran smoothly, else there is no telling lawyer and judge, he would, in the opinion of his many friends, make an contemptible. His ideas here were as contemptible. His ideas here were as where its extension man to be all who know Incapable of meanness in private or theman. He has already attained an enviable public life, he made no compromises standing in his chosen profession, and his with his convictions or with his duty prospects are bright for a successful business either to gain new friends or to keep future. His bride is one of the prettiest and old ones, and under his administration sweetest of Dover's daughters. To say that torial attempts at political control fit to shine as queen in any society, and vet

Born-In this city. December 23, to the

Died-In Davis township, Lafayette conn The news of Gov. Marmaduke's Mrs. WM. HICKMAN. — At Waverly, Lafavette county, Mo December 20, Mr. T. P. PEERY, aged - Near Waverly, Lefavette county, Wo

IDA LEDFORD, daugnter of A. H. and Rovilla Ledford, aged 13 years, 4 months and 22 days. She was the only child. warning to the victim, who in this case might reasonably have looked to a decade of prospect and a decade of retro Machette. Miss Machette was educated at the E. A. S. and had many friends here who will — Near Corder, December 28th, 1887, at the residence of her son-in-law, Rev. J. C. Shackelferd, Mrs. ELIZABETH NEALE, relict of Lewis Neale, decensed, aged 90 years

Mrs. Neale was the mother of our fellow ganization thus far made and to solicit con- iduals or with the state. We do not citizens, Isaac and Lewis Neate, the wife of tributious to aid in building the monument te believe a single public act of his can be a pioneer citizen of our county, and a most

> The funeral took place from the Christian church, at Independence last Sunday, Elder course of friends was present. Mrs. Hick man was a most estimable and worthy Jady and had many friends in this county, who will regret to learn of her death

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING. NOTE E IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE

FOR SALE. PURE BRONCE TURKEYS.

One of the most skilled mechanish not for the sake of justice would have approved his Davis' article, which was criticis d Blackmore, a sypographical error It was not his error e prace has been made between 11 . We trust they all had a Merry and we wish them a Happy New on wanted at the Second Hand we true septivi attack.

Boker Minnes Mrs. Bennett, F. W.
Chillion, I. A. Christian, Soping M.
Dayres, Fas A. Doyer, H.
Graves, Samitel Harrison, Rabert
Harris, Jewe Rev. Haten, James Rev.
Jenkins, Abre 2 cod Jackson, Tom
Lewis Rashir Mrs. Mighes, Thomas
Lambert Rashir Mrs. Mighes, Thomas Lambert Harry Antie Mrs.
Goldners, E. Chitam Mrs.
McBowel Lawy Antie Mrs.
Goldners, E. D.
Turner, George
Thomas, C. P.
Young, George and CARDS.

When calling for these phone say that they ere advertised P S Fill Statistics P M.

G. A. R. CRAND BALL! U NDER THE AUSPICES OF J. N. MULLIGAN POST, NO. D. G. A. R. in their Hall, in Reichn's building, on THURSDAY, JAN. 5.

ADMISSION, FIFTY CENTS. FINAL SETTLEMENT.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE

(E) is hereby given to all persons of in the estate of Frederick Sti 1, that the undersigned admini

Title undersigned, as administrator of the es-t of Wm. Landerdale, deceased, will sell, a dilite assisten, on the farm of and deceased, both a miles southwest of Wellington, No-ad about are hair full west of the Lone Jack SATURDAY, JANUARY 7, 1888, c following personal property, to-wit: On it of work males, 6 milch cows, 3 steer calve shout and kitchen furniture, etc. Saie with nence at to o'clock. Terms made known sy of sele. ROBE, J. DILLINGHAM, 24-31.

ONE OF THE BEST FARMS IN Table Linens, Towels, Napkins, LAFAYETTE COUNTY FOR SALE.

THE FARM CONTAINS 320 ACRES, is located on the state road from the cover to Lexington, 5 miles from the after place and within 1's miles of the

A. EGLE. WATCHMAKER

JEWELER.

S SHOWING a new and large SHAVER-PLATE WARE. I have also made quite an exten-ve additions to my stock of WATCHES, CLOCKS.

If y prices are as low as can be made REPAIRING DONE PROMPTLY

WHAT SHALL I BUY

Pocket Kutves. Scissors and Shears. turving Sets. Knives and Forks. Ten and Table Spoons. Guns and Pistols, stand Lamps, student's Lamps. Hand Lamps. Soft Cool Reating Stoves. Wood fleating Stoves. Wood Cook Stoves. Cont Cook Stoves. Cont Oil Stoyes, Brushes and Busters, filacking Stands.

arnet sweepers. Hat Backs,

Clothes Hampers

Library Lamps.

but little Children Gry for Pitcher's Castoria THIS PAPER is on the in Chiladelphia TW. AVERATON, our mathematical algebra

THE Most Substantial and Acceptable HOLIDAY PRESENTS that can be given to a gentleman, lady or child, "rich or poor" are now on

We have made special provisions for the Holiday Trade, and will also make Special Prices during the Holiday Season. At the same time we will make the greatest effort to display the same as well as to please and delight

Dress Goods, Cloaks,

Short Wraps, New Markets, Jackets, Shawls, Blankets, Bed Comforts, Ladies' Skirts, Flannels, Jeans, Cassimeres, Knit Underwear.

Hosiery, &c., for Gentlemen, Ladies and Children,

White Quilts, Etching Patterns, Corsets, Linen Collars and Cuffs, Woolen and Silk Mittens, Gloves, Ladies', Misses and Children's Toboggaus and Hoods, Iemstitched Handkerchiefs, in Plain Whites, Fancy Borders, Embroidered,

Scalloped, &c., as well as an unusually fine assortment of Wool and Silk Muf-flers of the most exquisite designs, and suitable for both Ladies and Gentlemen. It is of course, impossible for us to even you of all that we have. We claim, however, new of two acres each. The fand fres well, is produced to be read a lexington or to the son the rational. Taken altogether, a for large of the size cannot be found in the you of all that we have. We claim, bowever, never to have hast a better stock of everything belonging to Staple Dry Goods, as well as everything that goes

And, last, but not least, we promise to sell you CHEAPER than ever before. We unbesitatingly say that we will save you money on all of the above special lines of goods. Come now, before these goods are all gone or the 26x28 inches. Just the thing for presents, to either lady or gent. The assortment consists of Natural Sticks, Gold, Silver, Agate and Iyory Heads. Quality guaranteed two and three years. All will be sold at Special Prices during the Holidays.

THE AHRENS DRY GOODS BAZAAR.

LOOMIS!

We want all to read Our Locals. See Our Holiday Display,

And get Our Prices before Buying! We think we have quite a variety of Nice Goods, and have put such prices on them as will make them sell. CHARLES W. LOOMIS.

Druggist and Bookseller, Franklin Avenue,

A FULL LINE We have the Only Machine IN THIS PLACE. Crescent Heel Plate Machine, NDEE" RUBBERS suble Thick Ball and Tap Heel

Smith & Bolton's.

Bear Creek Lime,

Louisville Cement,

Plaster, Lath, Hair, &c.,

J. R. Morehead's

LUMBER YARD.